Anthony Sperduti of Milford Joins BlumShapiro upon Graduating
Post University graduate secures position at largest regional accounting firm

Waterbury, Conn. (May 10, 2011) – Recent Post University graduate Anthony Sperduti of Milford has been offered a full-time auditing position with for BlumShapiro, the largest regional accounting, tax and business consulting firm based in New England.

Sperduti received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Post University, where he graduated summa cum laude. During his senior year, he got hands-on experience at the firm during an internship.

“I was very fortunate to receive the opportunity to intern with Blum, and was able to apply what I was learning to the internship,” Sperduti said. “Being offered a full-time position was a great feeling, and I’m thankful I won’t have to undergo the stress of looking for employment.”

Sperduti says he has Nicole Taddei, Associate Professor of Accounting, to thank for landing the internship. “Her recommendation letter was a big contributor in my obtaining the internship, and for that I am grateful,” he said.

In addition to assistance from faculty, Post University’s Career Services department offers support to students interested in obtaining internship or cooperative education opportunities. Many are completed for credit.

The internship has largely prepared him for his new position, Sperduti said. “The overall work was something that could have only been learned through experience.” He transitioned from on-ground classes to taking courses online through Post’s Accelerated Degree Program while interning approximately 40 hours per week at Blum.

Throughout his college career, Sperduti was consistently a standout student in the community. He recently received the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants’ (CSCPA) Merit Award given to a graduating senior for academic excellence, and the Southern New England Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors’ Award for the top auditing student at Post University. He has received scholarships from the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, the CSCPA and Saslow, Lufkin & Buggy. He is a member of the Alpha Chi National Honor Society. He was also Post University’s Junior Class President.

Sperduti will start the position on June 6. "I can't wait," he said. Sperduti is a graduate of Jonathon Law High School. His mother, Judy, lives in Milford.
