

Press Contact:

Michelle Larkin

Gregory FCA

610-228-2117

michelle@gregoryfca.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DONALD MROZ, PH.D. NAMED PROVOST OF POST UNIVERSITY

WATERBURY, Conn.—September 20, 2011-- Post University, a traditional university with an excellent online program, announced today it has named Donald Mroz, Ph.D., Provost of the University. Dr. Mroz also will continue to provide leadership to the School of Business as its Dean.

Dr. Mroz will be responsible for further aligning the University's undergraduate and graduate degree programs and academic support services to ensure greater overall academic integrity among all its programs. He also will focus on educational outcomes within each discipline, and work to further improve retention and graduation rates among the University's traditional campus-based and online student populations.

“Dr. Mroz was instrumental in the development of an innovative and applied online MBA degree program, and has provided outstanding leadership of the School of Business,” said Tom Samph, Ph.D., president and CEO of Post University. “In addition to having the right academic credentials for the position, his decades of real-world business and consulting experience will enhance our ability to prepare students for careers. I am confident that under his leadership, we will be able to further improve upon the educational opportunities available to all our students.”

Before joining Post University, Dr. Mroz worked on strategy and leadership development with numerous organizations, including schools, and large and small for-profit companies and not-for-profits. He also has worked as a vocational and career education consultant, and has taught at the University of Michigan and University of North Carolina. He received his Ph.D. from Fielding Graduate University and holds a B.S. from Northern Michigan University and Master's degrees from Fielding and Eastern Michigan University.

“Post University is committed to doing the right things to advance our academic excellence,” said Dr. Mroz. “I look forward to this next stage in my career and to working with Dr. Samph and the rest of the Post University team to continuously improve the quality of education that our students receive.”

About Post University

Founded in 1890 and located in Waterbury, Connecticut, Post University is a student-focused, career-driven university that offers a wide array of degree programs for on-campus and online students of all ages. It is known for its quality, career-driven academic programs, small classes, and competitive NCAA Division II athletics. Its more than 8,000 full- and part-time students come from the United States and abroad, and are supported by faculty whose mission is to prepare students to compete and succeed in today's global workplace. To learn more about Post University, visit www.Post.edu or call 800-345-2562.

###