

Post University Subject Matter Expert

Katey Baruth, Ph.D., HSPP

Director of Master of Human Services Program

Areas of Expertise:

- Counseling Psychology
- Mental Health
- Social Services
- Addictions

Dr. Katey Baruth serves as the Director of the Master of Human Services Program. She is a licensed psychologist with more than 12 years experience in the field of mental health counseling and administration. Dr. Baruth has worked in several mental health settings where she has provided direct service, assessment, testing and supervision.

Prior to coming to Post University, Dr. Baruth was a Program Manager at the Hamilton Center, Inc., a non-profit outpatient community mental health center in Indiana. She managed and directed a 14-person team in the areas of clinical programming, outreach, supervision and consultation.

Dr. Baruth has served on several social services boards and committees and overseen many awareness activities and training programs. She has volunteered on several anti-drug campaigns, including the Southwestern Indiana Methamphetamine Alliance, a program that raised awareness of methamphetamine issues in southwestern Indiana.

In addition to working in the mental health arena, Dr. Baruth has been active in law enforcement by acting as a consultant to probation, sheriff and police personnel. She has given training presentations to law enforcement agencies in regard to mental health issues.

Dr. Baruth holds a Doctorate degree in Counseling Psychology from New Mexico State University, and a Masters Degree in Counseling with a Specialization in Addictions from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

To schedule an interview, please contact Ann Baldwin at Baldwin Media, 860-408-1580, ann@baldwinmedia.net; or Kelly Statmore at Post University, 203-910-7258, kstatmore@post.edu